Training Policies & Procedures

Region 9 Child Care Resource and Referral Service is committed to providing high quality workshops to assist child care professionals in meeting state requirements. We hope you will find our workshops useful and interesting, and we always welcome your suggestions.

Workshop calendars are mailed to child care professionals bi-annually. All workshops are approved by the North Carolina Division of Child Development and Early Education and qualify for in-service hours. The calendar can be found on our Region 9 website at www.region9ccrr.org and click on Caldwell County.

Registration forms are only accepted with payment, either through the mail or in person. No registration forms will be accepted via fax, e-mail, or any other method than what is listed above. All fees must be paid in cash, check, or money order payable to the Iredell County Partnership for Young Children (ICPYC). There will be a return check fee for any check that is returned insufficient funds to the Iredell County Partnership for Young Children. Anyone with a returned check will not be able to register for workshops until all fees are paid in full.

Participants who are unable to attend a workshop are required to give a 24-hour notice of cancellation in order to receive a credit transferable to another workshop, substitutions are allowed. Participants arriving 15 minutes late or later, can stay for the workshop but will not receive workshop credit.

Disruptive and/or rude behavior of any participant will be addressed with the individual, as well as the director of the child care facility they represent. (Examples: talking, cell phone usage, etc.) If the behavior continues, the participant will be asked to leave and will not receive any workshop credit. Please make prior arrangements for child care, as young children are not allowed at any of the workshop sessions.

Basic School Age Care (BSAC)	BSAC (Basic School Age Care) is a 5 hour introductory level training event for school age care professionals that are new to the field. The training includes the following modules: 1) Health, Safety, & Nutrition, 2) Environmental Design, 3) Child/Youth Development 4) Developmentally Appropriate Activities, 5) Guiding Child Behavior, and 6) Quality School Age Care. This training is required by the NC Division of Child Development for school age care professionals working in licensed programs but is a great training for new staff in any afterschool program setting. Bring your lunch!	July 21, 2018 9:00am-2:00pm 5 DCDEE Credits Christen Fries Resource and Referral Specialist	Caldwell Co Library Meeting Room 3 $30.00
NC Foundations for Early Learning & Development	If you want to increase your knowledge of child development, lesson planning, establishing goals for children and need engaging activities for classroom center play, then the NC Early Learning “Foundations” training is for you! This workshop will also provide strategies for engaging children in active learning by providing opportunities for them to create, explore and discover their environment through play!	August 2 & 9, 2018 6:00pm-8:30pm 5 DCDEE Credits Shaina Pearce Professional Development Coord	Caldwell Co Library Meeting Room 5 $30.00
Understanding Monitoring and Development Screening	Have you ever been approached by a parent that had concerns about their child’s development? Have you ever struggled with talking to a parent when you had concerns about their child’s development? The training will explain your role in developmental monitoring and the importance of promoting developmental screening when there is cause for concern. Participants will learn the difference between developmental monitoring and developmental screening, why each is important in supporting children birth to five, how to communicate effectively with parents and how to assist them through the referral process.	August 14, 2018 6:00-8:30pm 2.5 DCDEE Credits Alicia Shell Infant Toddler Specialist	Caldwell Co Library Meeting Room 3 $15.00
Every Child Counts – Building a Community	Jamal seems different from the rest of the children in your group. He usually plays by himself and when he asks to join others in play, they usually say, “No.” This training will help you learn how to bring out nurturing, caring behaviors in children to create a community where children support each other. You’ll learn ways to help Jamal and others like him to rise from being a loner in the group to being a leader. School Age providers only.	August 20, 2018 6:00-8:00pm 2 DCDEE Credits Christen Fries Resource and Referral Specialist	Caldwell Co. Change is Hard! But It Doesn't Have to Be	Experts estimate that 20-30% of a young child's day involves transitioning from one activity to another. That's a lot of moving and a lot of wasted time! Unless teachers plan transitions as carefully and intentionally as they plan the rest of their day, that time can be stressful and frustrating for teachers and children alike. Participants will identify the transitions in their daily schedule, determine ways to eliminate some transitions, and learn strategies to support smooth transitions.	September 18, 2018 6:00-8:00pm 2 DCDEE Credits Michelle Boyles Healthy Social Behavior Specialist	Caldwell Co.
